Versatile technical designer and developer working across a broad spectrum of projects. I lead web development at Brro, support architecture studio Heber Mata with comms and admin, run a mushroom project focused on circularity called PSBR, and I'm engineering a prosthetic running blade for my dog Lumo. Check my online bio for a more literal version of my CV.

In a nutshell, I...

- was born on 23-03-1989, so I'm 35,
- live in Breda with an amazing home office,
- am a maker of almost anything,
- fluently work with AI assistance to expand my productivity and my range of skills,
- am open to new exciting projects,
- will one day move my home office to a country with high mountains,
- play drums and love music,
- currently listen to this is on repeat:
